

Warning

The use of Australian UHF-CB and New Zealand PRS is prohibited.

Strictly prohibited in Japan

Reason for prohibition:

The frequencies used by UHF-CB and PRS are used for television broadcasting in Japan. The use of such devices causes a range of problems related to television reception.

Picture problems

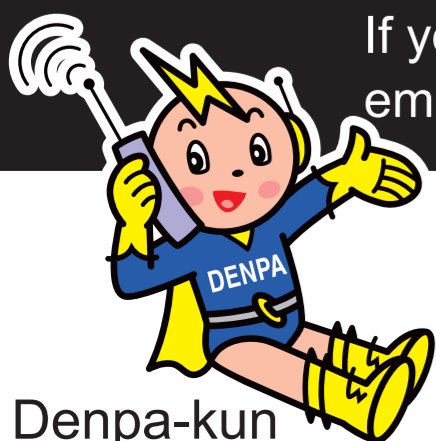

Block noise

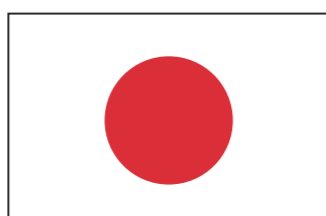

No reception

Any person interfering with important administrative radio communications shall be liable to penal servitude for a period not exceeding five years or to a fine not exceeding 2.5 million yen. Attempted offenses are also subject to punishment.

If you possess a radio device that cannot be used in Japan in a condition where radio waves can be emitted, you will be punished by law, regardless of whether you are aware of the illegality of your act.
