

Major group 03 – Fisheries

Overview of the Major group

This Major group comprises establishments engaged in catching or collecting the marine animals and plants that are propagating naturally in the sea or inland water (including those that are propagating by so-called cultivation, i.e. seeding, nursing, stone laying, and plowing).