

Major group 36 – Collection, purification and distribution of water, and sewage collection, processing and disposal

Overview of the Major group

This Major group comprises establishments engaged in supplying water, in response to general demand, using water mains or pipes and other facilities, and those engaged in removing or treating wastewater and rainwater by means of public drains, river-basin drains or urban drains.