

Major group 62 – Financial institutions for cooperative organizations

Overview of the Major group

This Major group comprises financial institutions primarily engaged in dealing with savings and offering financial services for small businesses, farmers and fishermen who are members of cooperative organizations and for labor organizations and cooperative organizations.