

Major group 73 – Medical and other health services

Overview of the Major group

This Major group comprises establishments engaged in providing medical treatment or similar medical services to patients by doctors, dentists, or the like, and those engaged in providing services directly related to these medical services.