

Major group 95 – National government services

Overview of the Major group

This Major group comprises, out of the state organs, establishments of the Diet, courts, central government offices and their local branch offices and bureaus, and the like that are essentially engaged in legislative, judicial and administrative affairs.