

Major group 96 – Local government services

Overview of the Major group

This Major group comprises establishments of prefectural government offices, municipal and ward offices, town and village offices, associations of local autonomous bodies and their regional branches, and the like that are essentially engaged in legislative, judicial and administrative affairs.